

THE PRESIDENT'S INTELLIGENCE CHECKLIST

ISSUED BY THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

18 JANUARY 1963
~~TOP SECRET~~

1. Congo

a. In Elisabethville yesterday afternoon, Tshombe agreed to give the UN easy entry into Kolwezi and to order the gendarmerie to remove all mines and demolition charges and turn in their weapons.

b. The UN will move in Monday. Tshombe is allowed to keep a bodyguard of one gendarmerie company largely because he claims one of the mercenaries tried to assassinate him. If true, the incident would suggest Tshombe may not be able to hold his last-ditch followers in line.

c. A company of Leopoldville's finest is now in Elisabethville--Anany's personal bodyguard. It numbers 150 victory-suffused "para-commando" rowdies. The UN is having some difficulty keeping order.

d. Spaak is suggesting another US-UK-Belgian top working-level conference to work out common plans for where we go from here.

2. Laos

a. Souphannouvong wrote a letter to Souvanna Tuesday again protesting [redacted] flights in support of the Meo.

b. Souvanna told Ambassador Unger that if there is another shootdown of one of our supply planes, he would be unable to accept responsibility. Unger is afraid that if there is another incident under present arrangements, Souvanna may throw up his hands and ask us to call the whole thing off.

c. To avert this, Unger suggests we charter a few planes to Souvanna's government and see how and if it manages to supply the Meo with them.

3. Cuba

a. The Simferopol docked in Havana early last evening. There is no word yet on its cargo.

At the East German congress yesterday, Khrushchev boycotted Cuban delegate Hart's speech, just as he did that of the Chinese delegate. Hart confined himself to pleading for unity and solidarity, mentioning neither "dogmatism" nor "revisionism"--a line which we have noted would not sit well with the Soviets.

4. Nicaragua-Cuba

a. For the past week radio Havana has been broadcasting fabricated news reports of an alleged revolution in Nicaragua.

pro-Castro Nicaraguan revolutionary, Carlos Fonseca Amador, has crossed into Nicaragua with a band of some forty guerrillas whom he has been training in Honduras. Presumably they intend to light a fire before the Presidential elections on 3 February.

50X1

c. Nicaraguan security forces have been alerted and can probably contain the intruders.

5. Alliance for Progress

a. Fundamental differences in approach to the task of evaluating the Alliance for Progress program have arisen between former Presidents Lleras and Kubitschek.

6. Spain-NATO

a. The Spanish Foreign Minister says Spain has not ruled out the possibility of a simple five-year extension of the base agreement, given "satisfactory reciprocal actions" on our part.

b. The Spanish are now working up a list of suggestions to illustrate what they mean by this. They hope to have it ready by early March.

c. Spain, he says, does not wish to join NATO, but rather, be regarded as a close collaborator. They do want associate membership in the Common Market, but are not asking our help to this end.

d. At the EEC secret session yesterday, Couve is reported by the press to have called for an end to negotiations until and unless Britain accepted associate membership. The meeting broke up in a furore and has resumed this morning. We do not yet have an official account.

NOTES

- A. Berlin The Brandt-Khrushchev visit was abruptly called off yesterday after a stormy session in the West Berlin Senat when the Christian Democrats (despite Adenauer's approval of the meeting) threatened to withdraw from the West Berlin coalition if he went through with it. Brandt has told Lightner the incident has gravely damaged his standing and future cooperation with the Christian Democrats in Berlin will be very difficult to achieve.
- B. Bulgaria-US Bulgaria has appointed a new minister here and promoted the old one, while putting out other feelers for an improvement in relations. Sofia's food shortages (rationing has had to be re-instituted) probably have much to do with this.
- C. Communist Bloc Peiping's delegate to the East German Congress was drowned out this morning by whistles, boos, foot stamping, and shouts as he launched an attack on Yugoslav revisionism. Peiping's media have so far ignored the congress, Khrushchev's speech and his call for a truce.
- D. Ghana-US Ghana has declared Dr. Nydell, our regional medical officer in Accra, persona non grata on charges of participation in a plot to assassinate Nkrumah. Accra also asked that we transfer Cultural Affairs officer Davis for reasons which it says it prefers not to disclose.

F. Hungary The Hungarians have issued a series of stamps honoring Soviet and US astronauts, but quickly withdrew from circulation the one honoring Carpenter. It seems he was put on the one with the highest denomination, which was taken to imply US superiority. Hungarian philatelists are having a field day.

G. Togo Gru-nitsky will be keeping the foreign affairs portfolio himself, along with defense and interior. Meatchi gets public works, communications, and education.

H. Hong Kong Peiping has protested to the British that urban renewal work being carried out in the walled city of Kowloon violates Chinese sovereignty and cannot be tolerated. Actually, this area is a Chinese exclave lying entirely within the Crown Colony, and the British have been very circumspect in exercising jurisdiction there. The result has been a center of crime and vice. Peiping probably feels it has to make a gesture in view of Khru-shchev's sarcastic references to Chinese tolerance toward Hong Kong.
